Outstanding Achievement Award: acknowledge products or capabilities that stand out for attributes such as innovation, usefulness or value.

Pacesetter Awards: are based on exhaustive questionnaires, in-depth interviews and a proprietary rating scale. Keypoint Intelligence's Pacesetter Awards recognise those document imaging Original Equipment Manufacturer's (OEMs) that have shown market leadership in a variety of categories including with technologies, services and key vertical markets.

Reliability Award: is evaluated by lab personnel and analysts to determine the winners based on business-critical factors, including total tested impressions, number of misfeeds, and service interruptions.
